Jazz for Kids: 10 Exciting Lessons for use in your piano studio

I think that you will find these lessons fun to supplement to your standard methods that you are using in your piano studio. I have used these lessons with my students and they have had a blast with them. Make sure your students have studied for at least a year and are at least age 8.

Fill out the order form below and include payment to the address listed below. You will receive your book and CD within 3 weeks of receipt.
